Optimizations

Paid Search

- Campaign Restructures: Bid strategy optimization that is a streamlined structure designed to better leverage Google's AI-driven bidding and optimized broad match.
- Microsoft PMAX Expansion: Due to strong approval rates in Microsoft PMAX paid search, we are leveraging for those programs that have budgets to support.
- Microsoft Audience Network: Expanding our reach to high-intent audiences across native placements like MSN, Outlook, and partner sites. This should help us drive incremental volume beyond search while keeping efficiency top of mind. We're expecting to see more engagement from upper-funnel audiences and over time, an increase in cross-channel conversions.
- Launched Demand Gen: This new campaign type helps us reach high-intent audiences earlier in their journey with immersive, visually engaging ads across YouTube, Discover, and Gmail.
- Worked with Google to build WEX a BDI/CDI report: backed by Google's research to pinpoint the best-performing regions. We'll be focusing on areas where our brand is already strong (BDI) and where demand for our category is high (CDI), so we can maximize impression share and app volume in the most promising markets.

Programmatic

- New DSP: Tradedesk
- Look-A-Like Audiences utilizing first-party data
- 3P (Third-party) audience segment tests: Bombora, RigDig, DM Audiences
- New Home Depot Audience Network. Layered Business Data over people that shop at Home Depot to expand the relevant audience.
- Connected TV
- Streaming Audio
- Gas Station TV

Social Marketing

- Influencers: In Q1 we introduced our first Influencer collabs with Chase Gallagher and Awesome Framers. These campaigns were successful from an organic and paid perspective. The organic posts resulted in 50+ new followers on Instagram in key demos and our most engaged with Instagram posts to date. The paid boosts had CTRs as high as 6.4%, our highest CTR for any WEX LOB of all time. This content is now in our owned campaigns as well.
- Updated Content: We refreshed our creative to include new placements, content types, and variation in creative look and feel. This resulted in 11,402,013 impressions, 143,479 link clicks, 153 applications, and 26 accounts.
